Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 and 3-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. For claim 1, it is indefinite to conditionally claim a feature. Therefore, the term “preferably” should not be used when describing the channel cross section or the legs. Also, in the second from last line of claim 1, it is unclear whether or not the “a tabletop” is the same tabletop as claimed previously. For claim 3, in section d), it is unclear whether or not the “a tabletop” is the same tabletop as claimed previously and whether or not one or two tabletops are being claimed. For claim 4, it is indefinite to conditionally claim a feature. Therefore, the term “preferably” should not be used when describing the table lengths and channel. Also regarding claim 4, the phrase “for example or e.g.” renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d). Furthermore, for claim 4, it is unclear whether or not the supports and legs are the same supports and legs claimed previously and it is improper to “un-claim” features (see i.e. statement). For claim 7, stating that the depression is “channel-like” is indefinite and it is unclear which tabletop is being referred to in line 5, since plural tabletops have been claimed previously. For claim 8, it is indefinite to conditionally claim a feature. Therefore, the term “preferably” should not be used. For claim 11, it is indefinite to conditionally claim a feature. Therefore, the term “preferably” should not be used. Also, "the strut extensions" lacks antecedent basis. For claim 18, the phrase "for example" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitation(s) following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d). Also for claim 18, it is unclear whether or not the inserts claimed are the same inserts as claimed previously.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 and 3 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 4-18 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
